Christmas Tea

Board Members

From the President

Thank you to all the patrons who came to the Book Cellar on Oct. 13-15 for our Half Price Sale. It was well attended and our volunteers did a wonderful job helping people find their treasures. I'd also like to thank all the patrons who donated their used books to add to our coffers. Our two lucky winners of the $50 gift certificates to the Book Cellar are Rosario Contrais and Lucas Trily. We hope to see both of you soon to pick out some great reads — congratulations!

Many of you probably don't know that we like to spread the wealth. Many of our duplicates and books we can't sell go to several worthwhile organizations. St. Vincent de Paul Village comes to pick up books that they can distribute to the public. Laloma Foundation is an organization run by Irish Catholic nuns in Fiji. Materials that we send to Fiji go a hospital and missionary school. We donate books to Care Packages from Home, a nonprofit organization that sends items to active military who are deployed. The Juvenile Teen Book Club in San Diego receives books from us from time to time. Please know that we want to give when we can.

Please join us next month for our 21st Annual Christmas Tea! It will be held on Friday, December 9th from 1:30 to 4:30. Each year community members and businesses dress up beautiful trees and wreaths to donate to the Library Guild to be raffled or auctioned off at this event. Donating a tree or buying raffle tickets is a fun and festive way to support the Library - please join us!
