From the President

Our bi-annual Half Price Book Sale is scheduled for October 13, 14, and 15, Thursday to Saturday from 10:00AM - 4:00PM. Come rain or shine; everything in the Book Cellar will be half off. We will once again be having a drawing for 2 lucky winners of a $50 gift certificate towards the Book Cellar for future use so come by and fill out your raffle and deposit it in the box in the Cellar. We will have the drawing at 4:00PM on the 15th and you don't have to be present to win. Don't forget - this is also a great time to drop off books that you no longer need. You can replace them with ones from the book sale!

SAVE THE DATE - our second Guild Members Author Talk Series will feature DAVID PRYBIL'S NOVEL GOLDEN STATE on Friday, October 14th at 6:00PM in a private residence. The cost is $25 which includes a signed copy of the book. Seating is limited and reservations must be received by Oct. 10th. This event is being underwritten by Wells Fargo Advisors and we expect to be an entertaining evening.

You should have received our letter regarding our participation in the 30 for 30 program with the Rancho Santa Fe Foundation and I hope you will seriously consider supporting our endeavors in raising $29,000 to support the library. No amount is too small. The county budget has been severely cut and the Guild needs everyone's help in keeping our wonderful library in good stead to serve our community.

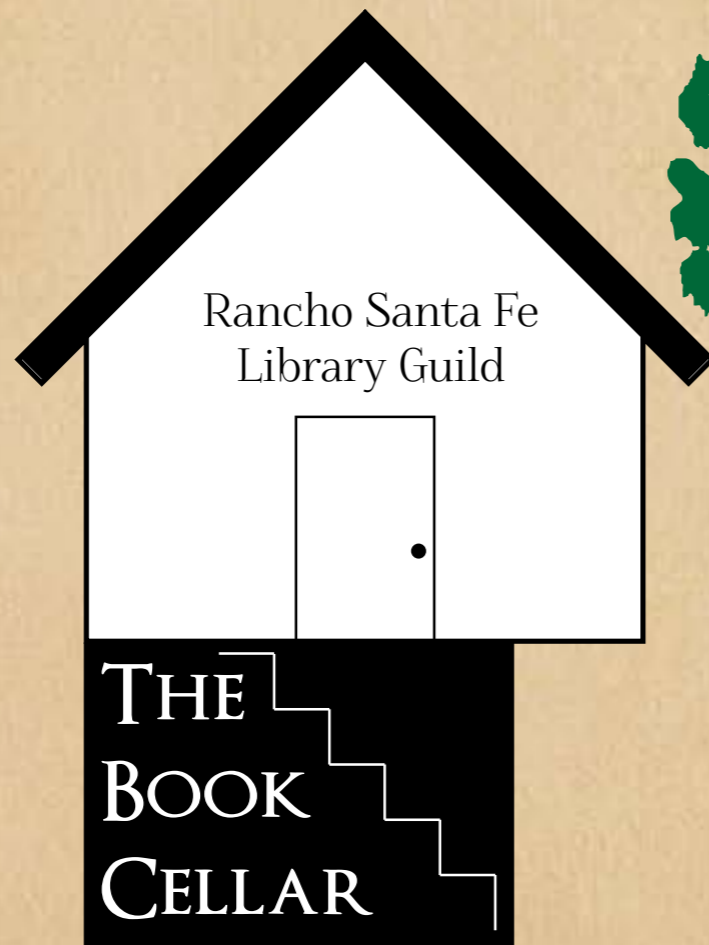

School is in full swing now and the library is hopping after 3:00PM each day and that's the way we like it. With our new part time employee, Ellie Henderson, things are moving along smoothly and she has agreed to start a Teen Book Club which will meet on Saturdays. Her first meeting will be on October 22nd at 2pm reading THE FLOATING ISLANDS BY RACHEL NEUMEIER. Snacks will be served.

I'd like to welcome to our Guild Board, Sophia Alsadek, who will be handling our Publicity. She is a dynamo and will be a great addition to our terrific board. Welcome Sophia! Hope to see everyone at the Half Price Sale and around the library.
